

Arizona Senator Picked As GOP Campaign Chief

WASHINGTON (AP)—White House assistant was reported today for a move to name Sen. Goldwater of Arizona as chairman of the Republican Senatorial Campaign Committee.

If he is chosen by the Conference of Republican Senators, he would step into the place now filled by Sen. Dirksen of Illinois, ineligible under present rules because he is expected to become a candidate for re-election in 1956.

Both Goldwater and Dirksen voted "no" when the Senate Dec. 22 condemned Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) for some of his actions, but when McCarthy criticized President Eisenhower Dec. 7, Goldwater was among the first to defend the President.

In the 1956 campaign 17 GOP seats and control of the Senate will be at stake.

The campaign committee chairman is often included in the councils of the GOP Senate leadership, expected to include a solid front of senators who voted against censure of McCarthy.

The Republicans scheduled a conference of all their members today at which Sen. Knowland of California was expected to be re-elected floor leader without opposition.

Senate Democrats, meeting later today, are expected to endorse Sen. George of Georgia as president pro tempore of the Senate.

In House caucuses, Democrats are expected to name five new members to the powerful Ways and Means Committee—Harrison of Virginia, Ikard of Texas, Herlong of Florida, McCarthy of Minnesota and Karsten of Missouri. Rep. Rayburn of Texas is scheduled to become speaker and Rep. McCormack of Massachusetts the majority leader.

Republicans will make retiring Speaker Martin their majority leader.

Russians Barred In Moscow, Mich.

MOSCOW, Mich. (AP)—The Muscovites here have mixed reactions on the government's decision to close their frontiers to Russians.

Moscow, Mich., is in one of 37 counties in Michigan included in a nationwide area closed to travel by Soviet citizens in this country. The State Department announced the move Monday as a retaliatory measure against Moscow—Moscow, Russia.

(Another American Moscow—in Idaho—also was declared out of bounds for the Russians. But they are free to travel in still another—Moscow, Ohio.)

Michigan's Moscow—which doesn't even have a family of Russian ancestry—is in Hillsdale County. It has 200-plus residents, a tavern-turned-antiques shop built in 1827, and a general store.

Harold Horton, 41, a farmer, supports the government's move. "If they don't want us traveling through their country then we should keep them out of here," he said.

To Fred Kies, owner of the general store, it "doesn't make any difference." But Kies commented on a long-standing complaint. He said that every time Russia launches new strategy in the cold war, Moscow is under siege from outside pressure to change its name.

On the this point, Richard Clow, 29, a recent graduate of Hillsdale College, says Muscovites are united.

"When the other Moscovs in the United States change their names," he said, "we'll consider taking action."

Hunt On For Killers Of Panama President

PANAMA (AP)—Authorities pressed a nationwide search today for a band of unidentified professional killers accused of assassinating President Jose Antonio Remon at the instigation of his political enemies.

The "guns-for-hire" charge was made by Minister of Government Catalino Arrocha Graell in a funeral oration late Monday over the body of the slain chief executive, who was mowed down by machine-gun fire at a race track Sunday night.

"Mercenary hands armed by his political enemies" fired the bullets, Arrocha declared. There was widespread speculation that the killers may have been imported.

There was no clue to the identity of the assassins. The National Assembly has decreed a 10-day stage of siege—a modified form of martial law temporarily suppressing some constitutional guarantees—to aid secret police in their hunt.

At least a score of persons, including ex-President Arnulfo Arias and two women, have been rounded up for questioning. Col. Saturnino Flores, deputy commander of Panama's national guard, has indicated strongly that the weight of suspicion is on followers of Arias, who was ousted from the presidency in 1951 by a bloody national guard coup. Remon then was head of the guard, Panama's chief military force.

President Remon

At the annual ADA banquet in New York in observance of the birthday of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt, Lehman and Harriman were co-chairmen for the January 1954 affair.

Harriman did not give Lehman a definite answer. Later he turned down a repeat invitation extended through Arthur Schlesinger Jr., another ADA leader.

Rauh then called at Harriman's office to discuss the bid further but Harriman said he did not want to hear any more about it.

Rauh asked for two minutes to explain, saying he did not believe Harriman fully understood the situation. Harriman gruffly told him to "go ahead."

The gist of what Rauh had to say was that the ADA only wanted in effect to honor Harriman, long an ADA contributor, and that Harriman's refusal to speak "might be misinterpreted."

At this Harriman shouted in anger that "I'm not running out on ADA the way your friend Adlai Stevenson did." There was no elaboration.

Taken aback by the remark which came without previous mention of the 1952 presidential nominee, Rauh still persisted in his argument that Harriman should make the address.

Harriman's response was to shout, "Get out!" Rauh left. Rauh is a national vice chairman of ADA and a member of the District of Columbia Democratic Central Committee. As a delegate to the 1952 convention he was one of Harriman's leaders up to the time Harriman withdrew in favor of Stevenson.

Gov. Harriman Tells His No. 1 Backer, Rauh, To Get Out

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Washington Post and Times-Herald says Gov. Averell Harriman of New York and Joseph L. Rauh Jr., who was prominent in Harriman's effort to obtain the Democratic presidential nomination in 1952, "have parted political company in spectacular fashion."

The story says Harriman ordered Rauh out of his New York office in December and in the preceding exchange took a verbal crack at Adlai Stevenson, the 1952 nominee and the man Harriman publicly says he is backing for 1956.

Rauh, a Washington lawyer and leader in Americans for Democratic Action, ran Harriman's successful campaign in the 1952 District of Columbia presidential preference primary. He declined comment on the newspaper story which gave this account of the reported Harriman-Rauh incident:

After the November election Sen. Herbert H. Lehman (D-Lib-NY) asked the governor-elect to speak

Budget In Red, Williams Admits

LANSING (AP)—Gov. Williams tossed his new cabinet of democratic state officials abruptly into budget discussions today and said for the first time publicly that his 1955 budget probably will be in the red.

Previously, Williams had seemed to be breaking the ice for an unbalanced budget by issuing a press statement saying mental health institutions would need $6,200,000 more next year and that it was difficult to whittle down the requests of state agencies.

At a press conference, Williams virtually conceded that next year's budget recommendation to the Legislature will show the state back in the red again.

But he refused to comment when asked if this will necessitate raising more taxes.

"That is what we are wrestling with," he said. These matters were discussed with the newly inaugurated team of Democratic state officials.

Williams said they would meet with him each morning "so that we may keep abreast of developments."

Jobless Sailor Admits Halloween Killing Of Johnstown, Pa., Girl, 6

EBENSBURG, Pa. (AP)—A 39-year-old unemployed sailor has pleaded guilty to a general charge of murder in the "trick-or-treat" pre-Halloween slaying of 6-year-old Karen Mauk.

Judges Ivan J. McKenrick and George Griffith Monday ordered Harry Gossard committed to Torrance State Hospital for mental observation.

The court said testimony will be taken to determine the degree of guilt after the hospital reports on Gossard's mental condition.

Karen's body was found in a cemetery not far from her home near Johnstown shortly after she left to participate in Halloween games last Oct. 29. The coroner said she was strangled.

Armed Services Have Upsurge Of Enlistments

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

There was a big upsurge in armed service enlistments Monday in some parts of the country in the wake of President Eisenhower's announcement Saturday that many veterans benefits would be cut off for those volunteering after Jan. 31. But in other areas no unusual increase was noted.

In Boston, Army spokesmen reported the greatest rush of volunteers since World War II—65 compared with an average of three on a normal day.

In some places, such as New York and St. Louis, young men appearing at draft boards to join up were told the Army quotas were full until after the deadline anyway.

In St. Louis most of the volunteers said they wanted to join in time to get the benefits. Thirty applied there for induction into the Army, against a normal of three or four.

In Miami, Fla., Sgt. Don Cramer of the South Florida Air Force Recruiting Service said today was "an unusually busy day."

In Kansas City, Capt. Fred Gerber of the Air Force said there were 21 enlistees for his service, and 40 for the Army. Normal turnouts would be about 10 for the Air Force and 10 to 15 for the Army, he said.

In Louisville, the Army said it had 30 applicants, twice the normal load. The Navy had 22, compared with the normal average of 10.

At the naval recruiting station in San Francisco, a spokesman said the office is expecting "a much larger number of young men than would normally be the case will enlist in the Navy in January to take advantage of Korean veterans benefits."

Check Passer In FBI Top 10

WASHINGTON (AP)—George Lester Belew, 41-year-old nomadic check passer and jail breaker, today was added to the FBI's list of "10 most wanted men."

According to the FBI, Belew, believed to have been born at Mountain View, Mo., began his criminal career at age 17 with a forgery which sent him to the Iowa State Reformatory at Anamosa for four years.

The bureau said he had been traced through 45 states and since early 1953 has left victims of worthless checks in 20 states from California to Michigan and from Oregon to Louisiana.

Belew was last in custody on July 30, 1954 for passing a fraudulent check at Hays, Kan. He escaped with a companion after blinding the jailer with hot soapy water.

Belew is of medium height, weighing about 170 pounds, has brown eyes and hair, and a scar on the bridge of his nose and beneath the point of his chin. His arms are tattooed elaborately.

Judge Denies First Dr. Sheppard Appeal

CLEVELAND (AP)—Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard, under a life prison sentence in the killing of his wife Marilyn, has lost the first round of his fight for a new trial.

Late Monday Judge Edward Blythin ruled there was "no merit" in any of 41 complaints of error in the 10-week trial which ended Dec. 21 with a jury convicting the 31-year-old osteopath of second-degree murder.

Another round in the fight for a new trial—in which Sheppard would again risk death in the electric chair—is scheduled for Saturday. Then Sheppard's lawyers get a hearing on their motion based on "newly discovered evidence."

Concluding a 15-page memorandum for the record, white-haired Judge Blythin wrote:

"The court is convinced that there is no merit in any of the complaints made by the defendant; that he was accorded a fair trial by an unusually intelligent and impartial jury, and that the verdict rendered is supported by the evidence adduced upon the trial."

Ohio City Raises $1000 For Michigan Family In Tragedy

CHILLICOTHE, Ohio (AP)—The Christmas spirit came early to Chillicothe this year as townspeople befriended survivors of an auto collision in which two members of a Michigan family were killed.

Citizens here raised almost $1,000 for the family of Mrs. Bonnie King, 30, whose husband, Eugene, 29, and 10-year-old daughter were fatally injured in a New Year's Day accident. The mother and six children survived.

The King family was passing through here enroute to their home at Linden, Mich., when their panel truck and a car collided.

Chillicothe residents also provided cars and drivers to carry the family back home. They are to leave today.

Killed in the crash was Judith Maynard, 10, Mrs. King's daughter by a previous marriage. King died Monday at Chillicothe Hospital.

Other King children include Darrell, 6, Thomas, 8, Caroline, 4, Marjorie, 5, and Larry Maynard, 11 and his sister Sandra 9.

Little Girl, 7, Saves Four In Home Fire

RIPLEY, N.Y. (AP)—Seven-year-old Mary Swan dropped her four younger brothers and sisters out a second-story window and then jumped to safety herself as fire, started by a wood-burning stove, leveled their farm home Monday.

None of the children, including a 6-month-old infant, was burned or injured seriously in the 15-foot plunge to the muddy ground. The parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Swan, were on a trip to Union City, Pa.

Woman Helping FBI Threatened By Communists

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. McClellan (D-Ark.) said today the Senate Investigations subcommittee may inquire further into a woman witness' story that a Communist threatened her life.

Dark-haired Mary Stella Beynon, 31, who said she is former FBI undercover informant, told part of the story Monday as a witness at the subcommittee's last scheduled public hearing before Sen. McCarthy (R-Wis.) hands its chairmanship over to McClellan in the new Congress.

Five Held For Contempt

Miss Beynon told the subcommittee that Roy Hudson, whom she described as a former chairman of the Communist party in western Pennsylvania, informed her on May 13, 1947, that "I would not be killed that night, but I was under a death sentence." She said Communists had just learned she was reporting to the FBI. She did not indicate there ever had been an attempt on her life.

Yesterday's sessions brought contempt of Congress threats against five persons, one of them a Pittsburgh Steelworker who swore he was not a Communist after 1:30 p.m., then refused to say if he had been one at 1 p.m. or previously.

McCarthy said he would ask the subcommittee to cite the witness, Harold K. Briney, on grounds he was taking "frivolous" refuge in the Fifth Amendment. Briney had pleaded that to answer differently "may tend to incriminate me."

Accused Ignore Subpoenas

McCarthy called the Government Operations Committee, the subcommittee's parent, to meet Wednesday to act on the contempt charges against Briney and others.

Briney said he had worked for 37 years for the Westinghouse Air Brake Co. in Pittsburgh, and is president of his independent United Electrical Workers local in Pittsburgh.

Miss Beynon and Frank Nestler, of Jeanette, Pa., together named eight Pittsburgh area employees of the Westinghouse Electric Corp. as persons they had known to be Communists. Nestler said he is a former Communist.

Three of those named did not answer subpoenas, and McCarthy said he would ask that they also be cited for contempt.

Miss Beynon and Nestler named them as Evelyn O. Daren, Monroeville, Pa.; Alfred Oyler, Pittsburgh, and Armino H. Sardoch, Pittsburgh.

Monday night Westinghouse announced in Pittsburgh that it had "released" the three as "undesirable employees," together with two others named at the McCarthy hearing—William L. Heiston Jr. and Joseph Slater.

After the announcement, Slater told The Associated Press, "I am not a Communist and never was."

Japan Gets Million For Bikini Damage

TOKYO (AP)—The United States has agreed to pay two million dollars for damage caused by last spring's H-bomb tests at Bikini Atoll, the Japanese Foreign Ministry announced today.

During negotiations lasting several months, Japan had demanded up to seven million dollars.

Radioactive ash from the March 1 test showered 23 Japanese fishermen. One died and the others have been hospitalized almost continuously since returning to Japan.

Japan also complained that tons of radioactive fish have been destroyed and fishing operations in the Pacific hampered.

Ishpeming Radioman Found Dead At Norfolk

NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—Norfolk police are investigating the death of John R. Kangas, Navy radioman, Ishpeming, Mich.

Kangas' body was found Saturday morning on a Norfolk beach. Police said he apparently had drowned.

His next of kin was listed as John S. Kangas, of the 200 block of Stone Street, Ishpeming.

Saginaw Father Kicks Over Oil Stove; 5 Die

SAGINAW, Mich. (AP)—An enraged father kicked over an oil heater during a family quarrel Monday night, touching off a flash fire that killed five children—three of them his own—and critically burned his wife.

Police said Eugene Pierce, 29, deliberately overturned the stove in a scuffle with his father-in-law L. C. Valentine, 44.

Brandishes Knife

Pierce, unemployed father of five, was under police guard at St. Mary's Hospital, held for investigation of manslaughter. He suffered a burn on the arm and lacerations in escaping through a window of the flaming home.

Valentine said Pierce, who was estranged from his wife, entered the house brandishing a knife. He said he subdued Pierce by smashing him on the head with the butt of a shotgun.

Pierce fled into another room, knocking over the oil heater, police said. Flames raced through the house, trapping the five victims, who were playing upstairs.

They were Betty Jane Pierce, 8; Sherlee Laverne Pierce, 6, and Allen Pierce, 4; Juanita Johnson, 10, and Caroline Craion, 9 months.

Pierce's wife Ada Lee, 26, was burned critically.

Three Rescued

Others injured in the blaze were Mrs. Pearl Craion, 22; and Valentine's wife Lueretha, 45.

Mrs. Valentine carried three children to safety—Vickie Pierce, 2, and Leonard Pierce, 9 months, and Geraldine Craion, 9 months.

Police were forced to handcuff Pierce to keep him from dashing back into the building in an attempt to rescue his children.

Valentine told police Pierce had been living away from his family since his release from the veterans hospital at Battle Creek, where he had been under treatment as a mental case. Officers said he had been drinking.

Double-Cross Claimed

Vitt, who later charged he was "double-crossed" in the way the letter was released, wrote that a "goodly share" of Russian revolutionaries who came to this country were "found among the Russian Jews." In New York Monday, Vitt made public a second letter to Benson, repeating a denial that he was motivated by anti-Semitism. He stated:

"I fail to see that any question of anti-Semitism is involved in stating that any Jew or a member of any other minority oppressed in the U.S.S.R. who becomes a Communist is a traitor not only to his country of allegiance but also to his people in view of the merciless persecutions his brethren suffered in the U.S.S.R. . . ."

Benson said yesterday he accepts "no responsibility for any of the statements or conclusions in the Vitt or any other letter received by the department in connection with the Ladejinsky matter." He also said, "It was a mistake to show the letter to reporters and by so doing imply the department's approval of its contents."

The officials have been provided with brand new 1955 Buicks—identical in every respect.

The cars, black Century models, will be used by Aud. Gen. Victor Targonski, Atty. Gen. Thomas M. Kavanagh, Secretary of State James M. Hare, Treasurer Sanford A. Brown, and Clair L. Taylor, superintendent of public instruction and the only Republican in the group.

J. Stanley Bien, director of purchasing, said Lieut. Gov. Philip A. Hart will not be assigned his own car. Hart uses a vehicle out of the state's motor pool.

This is the first Administrative Board to be equipped with Buicks in the last five years, Bien said.

Bids are solicited from Oldsmobile and Buick, he said, and have usually been awarded to Oldsmobile. Buick submitted a low bid of $2,259 for each car in this year's fleet.

Gov. Williams and State Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler are assigned Cadillacs from the state police pool.

Afraid Of Quakes

MESSINA, Sicily (AP)—Hundreds of Lipari islanders slept in the open again Monday night because of more earthquakes. Authorities in Sicily said there were no reports of new damage or of any casualties. The quakes started Dec. 27 and in the next three days, 75 separate earth shocks were felt, damaging several homes but causing no casualties.

State Of Union Message To Be 'Well Received'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. George (D-Ga.) predicted today Democrats will have no "basic disagreements" with President Eisenhower over foreign, national defense and world trade policies in the Congress session opening Wednesday.

George, in line to become the chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, spoke out after Republican legislative leaders predicted the President's State of the Union message will be "well received" by the country.

Eisenhower gave GOP leaders a preview of the message at the White House Monday.

New Defense Setup

The President was said to be stressing in the message a new defense concept in which proposed military manpower reductions would be offset by the employment of new weapons and closer links with America's allies.

The manpower cuts, already announced, have brought Democratic demands for a review of over-all military policy.

Eisenhower was represented as taking an optimistic view of the nation's long range economic prospects and was said to be emphasizing in the message plans to advance the health and economic welfare of the country.

The President is scheduled to deliver the message at a joint session of Congress Thursday. Radio and television networks will carry the speech.

Newspaper Wins $150,000 Tax Suit

DENVER (AP)—The U.S. 10th Circuit Court of Appeals in a 2-1 decision Monday reversed a U.S. Tax Court ruling in a case involving nearly $150,000 in taxes which the federal government had sought to collect from the Wichita Beacon newspaper.

The Appeals Court decision upheld arguments by Beacon attorneys that taxes on prepaid newspaper subscriptions should be divided over the length of the subscriptions. Thus, money received for a five-year subscription would be taxed over the five-year period.

The government had argued that all money received for subscriptions should be taxed at the time it is received. Under this method, the full amount of a five-year subscription would be taxed during the year when the subscription starts.

The Tax Court upheld the government position last year and the Beacon appealed.

An attorney for the Beacon, Nathan R. Kobey, termed the Appeals Court decision "the first clear-cut ruling in this matter of taxing newspaper subscriptions."

Gas Shortage Costs Life Of Aviatix, 32

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—Ten more gallons of fuel might have saved Dianna Bixby, 32, noted aviatrix whose broken body was flown back here from Mexico by her grieving husband.

"If she'd have had any kind of break at all—if she'd had 10 more gallons of gas—she would have made it," said Lt. E.S. Childers, copilot of a San Diego Coast Guard plane which located the wreckage of Mrs. Bixby's plane.

Robert Bixby, 40 her husband, couldn't say anything to reporters when he arrived last night.

Mrs. Bixby's freight cargo plane, a converted A20 bomber, crashed Sunday 150 yards offshore in the Gulf of California near Loreto, Baja California, Mexico.

She and her husband, operators of an air freight service, had been flying two planes to Mexico to bring produce back. Bixby, flying about an hour behind his wife, heard her say over the radio she was nearly out of gas but thought she had spotted a clearing for a landing.

Mayor Schedules Power Meeting

A meeting important in the development of procedures to submit a private electric power offer to a vote of the people of Escanaba has been called by Mayor Harlan Yelland for 7 p. m. Wednesday in City Hall.

The meeting was scheduled by Mayor Yelland after he was notified that the Upper Peninsula Power Company of Houghton is ready to supply the Council with a proposal in contract form. The terms of the proposed contract were discussed at a Council meeting last week.

At that time John H. Warden, Houghton, president of the Upper Peninsula Power Company, boosted its purchase offer for the city electric utility from $1,000,000 to $1,200,000; agreed that present electric rates would continue unchanged for three years; that a generating plant would be built in Escanaba and than present electric department employees would be guaranteed jobs with the private power company.

Before the City Council and the Power Company officials at the meeting tomorrow night will be the task of wording a proposition to submit the purchase offer to the people, together with a proposed franchise to the Power Company. Three-fifths majority approval of the electors voting thereon is required to sell the utility.

Two other proposed solutions to the electric power shortage are being studied by the Council, neither requiring a vote of the people. They are: To contract with the Alger-Delta Electric Co-operative for a wholesale supply of power; or to construct a municipal electric generating plant.

Detroit Family Awaits Freeing Of Son, Held In Russia For Nine Years

DETROIT (AP)—With mixed emotions of joy and heartache, a Detroit family awaited the release of a son held prisoner nine years behind the Iron Curtain by Soviet Russia.

The pledge to liberate John H. Noble was made in a note to the U. S. Embassy in Moscow Friday. "We are very, very happy; we hope to see Johnny very, very soon," said Charles A. Noble, John's German-born American father when informed of the Russian note.

John Noble, now 31, was trapped with his family in Germany at the outbreak of World War II.

Commercial fishermen of this area will meet at 7:30 p. m. Thursday in Carpenters Hall in advance of the annual convention of the Michigan Fish Producers Association, it was announced today by Walter Olson.

The local fishermen will discuss business scheduled to come before the state meeting, which will be held at Traverse City on Jan. 9-10-11. The state meeting is called by Claude Ver Duin, Michigan Fish Producers secretary.

Kiwanis Officers For '55 Installed

New officers of the Escanaba Kiwanis Club were installed at a regular meeting Monday noon, with the Rev. John Alford of Marquette, lieutenant governor of the division, conducting the installation ceremony.

An immediate past president's pin was presented to A. V. Aronson, retiring president of the local club, as president-elect George Ruwicz took over the gavel for the year 1955. On his staff are Judge William J. Miller and Guy Knutson, vice presidents; Clarence Zerbel, secretary-treasurer; and seven directors, E. G. Bennett, L. A. Danielson, William J. Duchaine, James Jackson, Robert Schmeling, William Winkler and Lowell Hebbard.

The program at next week's meeting will be given over to committee conferences as the various groups organize their work schedules for the coming year, and the following week, Jan. 17, will be a special program marking the 40th anniversary of Kiwanis. John J. Bartella will be the chairman in charge.

ERIC SUNDSTROM

Funeral services for Eric Sundstrom, Escanaba resident the past 50 years, were held at 2 p. m. Monday at the Anderson Funeral Home chapel with Rev. Johannes Ringstad of the Immanuel Lutheran Church officiating. Burial was made in Lakeview Cemetery.

During the services, Mrs. Dorothy DeGrand of Menominee sang "In the Garden" and "The Old Rugged Cross". She was accompanied by Danny Sheeran.

Palbearers were Nels Swanson, Eric Fredrickson, Emil Stenstrom, Carl Peterson, Jens Jensen and Paul Olson.

Out-of-town relatives attending were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Sundstrom of Monroe, Mich.

Potato Farm Sold

CORAL (AP)—The E. S. Christiansen 470-acre potato farm in Montcalm County, one of the state's largest potato farms, has been sold to Ralph Brown of Muskegon. The farm produces a crop of 75,000 to 80,000 bushels of potatoes annually. Christiansen, 75, has announced he will retire April 1.

U. S. Navy Invites Buddy Enlistments

John H. Prince, GM1, USN, Recruiter of the Navy Recruiting Station, Marquette, announced today that the Navy now has a new policy in effect which is "Enlist with your Buddy Program".

Under this program three or four young qualified men can enlist in the Navy and be sure of staying together for the entire period of their recruit training at Great Lakes, Illinois.

The Main Recruiting Station at Minneapolis will be notified in advance to avoid any possibility of the men being separated upon arrival at the training center.

Prince, explained, though, that extenuating circumstances, such as sickness, unsatisfactory progress in training or failure of one or more of the group to meet minimum requirements for regular recruit training could require that they be separated during the recruit training period. Aside from circumstances such as these, the men will remain together throughout their complete training.

Traffic Deaths Hit 19 In Delta

The traffic toll in Delta County totaled 19 in 1954, the largest number in more than a decade, according to figures assembled by Michigan State Police.

Records of traffic fatalities in Upper Peninsula counties reveal that Delta has the largest number of highway deaths of any U. P. county, for the period 1941-1954, inclusive. During that 15-year period, 162 persons died of traffic accident injuries in Delta County, compared to the next high of 153 in Marquette County.

In 1941, Delta County's traffic toll was 19, the same as last year, the figures show. During the war years the highway deaths declined along with traffic volume, but increased again after the war. The record of traffic deaths through the years is as follows:

1941-19, 1942-7, 1943-13, 1944-6, 1945-9, 1946-11, 1947-15, 1948-11, 1949-5, 1950-13, 1951-8, 1952-17, 1953-9, 1954-19.

Figures for traffic deaths in all Upper Peninsula counties for 1954 are not yet available. Over a period of 14 years, however, Delta County has had the dubious honor of being first in the number of traffic victims. Marquette County is second, Houghton County is third, and Chippewa County is fourth.

Mother Of State Police Commander Dies In Ishpeming

Mrs. Elizabeth Goldsworthy, 89, mother of Sgt. Edward C. Goldsworthy, commander of the Michigan State Police post at Gladstone, died last evening at the Ishpeming Hospital where she had been a patient for the past two weeks. Mrs. Goldsworthy was a widow of William Goldsworthy, who died in 1916.

Surviving are four daughters, Mrs. William H. Irwin and Mrs. Grace Hart, both of Ishpeming, and Mrs. Margaret Swarck and Mrs. Lawrence Olson, both of National Mine, and three sons, Thomas Heaton of National Mine, John Goldsworthy of Marquette and Edward C., Gladstone, 10 grandchildren and 11 great grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements will be announced at a later date.

Warm Weather To Continue In State

Average temperatures in Michigan for the next five days (through Jan. 9) is expected to be 3 to 6 degrees above normal for this season of the year, according to S. E. Decker, U. S. Weather Bureau meteorologist at Escanaba.

Some snow or rain is expected on Wednesday in the north part of the state. The weather will be warmer through Wednesday and then turn colder Thursday and Friday.

The high on Wednesday in the Escanaba area is expected to be 36 degrees.

Low temperatures of last night in Michigan were in the 20's, compared to lows of 32 degrees in Oakland and Fresno, Calif., 41 at Los Angeles.

K. Of C. Auxiliary Is Organized Here

The wives of Knights of Columbus held a meeting Monday night to form an Auxiliary. Mrs. John Sankovitch was elected president and Mrs. Paul Degeneffe, vice president. The balance of the officers will be named at the next meeting Feb. 7. A social hour followed the meeting and lunch was served.

IT'S A DULCIMER—That's how Webster's dictionary classifies this ancient instrument held by owner O. O. Sickles, of Lansing, Mich. But the unusual musical antique bears little resemblance to what is known as a dulcimer today. A violin repairman who repaired it recently believes it may be traced back to the 16th century. Editorials—

Socialist Intellectuals Still Are Threat To Free Enterprise

THE great questions which confronted the American people when 1954 ended had not been answered when 1954 ended. Had they been, it would have amounted to a miracle of unprecedented proportions. For they involve, in the international sphere, bitter and emotionally-charged conflicts which have been growing and deepening for more than a generation. And here at home, on the domestic front, the American people certainly have not made clear their answer to the greatest question of all—what kind of government they want.

There were achievements during the year—notable achievements. When the shooting war ended in Korea, and it became possible to sharply decrease war spending, there were those who feared that a depression or at least a severe recession was inevitable. They believed that our economy was so inextricably tied to war that the transition to even an uneasy peace would be long and painful. That was not the case. It has been pointed out that never in history did a great nation proceed with such a transition in so orderly a fashion.

Industry demonstrated its faith in this nation's strength and potential by continuing and ever increasing expansion programs of almost unbelievable scope and cost. The declining purchasing power of the dollar was checked—the direct result of curbs on federal spending. As the year ended, production and consumption were running at enormous levels, and the employment figures reflected that fact.

What then—barring another world war—have we got to worry about?

The answer is simple. For some 20 years, millions of Americans became conditioned to having government provide more and more of the services that people must provide for themselves if a free system is to be preserved. They became conditioned to the idea of a welfare state. And, apparently, they regarded a "little socialism" as a good thing.

Obvious consequences of this are found in our national debt and our tax structure—nothing is more expensive than socialism and a welfare state. More subtle and more important consequences are found in a sapping of individual moral fiber, and the undermining of old, eternal ideals of human dignity and freedom and responsibility.

Americans hate Communism. Yet Communism is nothing but socialism and state capitalism—"do-everything" government—carried to the inevitable end. One of the most distinguished men living recently described the process well. Herbert Hoover said "In the Iron Curtain states it was the Socialist intellectuals who weakened the freedom of men by destroying free enterprise. Thus they furnished the boarding ladders by which the Communists captured the Ship of State."

Today, as for years past, the attempt to destroy free enterprise in the United States continues. Men in high, responsible positions, including members of both the political parties, advocate policies and philosophies which would undermine free enterprise in one sphere or another, and which would make the central government ever bigger, ever more powerful, ever more expensive, ever more monopolistic, ever more oppressive.

A short time ago Dorothy Thompson wrote: "Private enterprise, we note, is always called an 'interest' while State capitalist ventures are presented as disinterested instruments of the 'people.' This is balderdash. Government grows on what it feeds on; every Government agency and its functionaries are hungry for more appropriations and more power; they, too, are 'interests.'"

Moreover, the sins of private enterprise can be and are corrected by law. The sins of super-government, once a certain point is reached, are beyond any law. The people, more and more, take what is offered and do what they are told. That is the way free men become slaves. Modern history groans with examples of it.

It was said long ago that any people get the kind of government they deserve. They also get the amount of freedom they deserve. We Americans are not immune to these truths.

Wor-'s, Wit & Wisdom

By William Morris

Remember when penicillin was a new word in our language? Remember, indeed, when—just a short decade ago—purists were trying to make us pronounce it pen-iss-in instead of pen-nih-SILL-in?

Well, there are quite a few new antibiotic drugs working for all of us now—and today we shall try to take a quick look at one of the most important of the new ones in hopes that we'll know what the doctor is talking about when he prescribes it for us or the youngsters.

The newcomer, tetracycline (pronounced tet-ruh-SY-kleen) is an antibiotic useful in many diseases now treated with penicillin. But tetracycline has the added virtue of being what the experts call a "broad range" or "broad spectrum" drug. This means that it is useful in the treatment of a wide variety of ailments—from skin diseases to strep throat, to say nothing of Rocky Mountain spotted fever and psittacosis.

Curious about that last, "psittacosis"? That's parrot fever—which medical researchers have lately learned can be transmitted by other birds than parrots—chickens, for instance. It is pronounced sit-uh-KOH-siss, with the initial "p" silent as in pneumonia.

Incidentally, these new antibiotics are big business today. According to the WALL STREET JOURNAL, four drug companies developed tetracycline almost simultaneously and quite a legal squabble has ensued, each claiming the right to a patent on the discovery. The reason for their quarrel? Well, sales of penicillin, aureomycin, terramycin and chlormycetin last year totaled nearly $400,000,000—and many doctors feel that tetracycline is superior to all of these for the treatment of many diseases. So the stakes are high for the eventual victor in the patent litigation.

The competition has its bright side for the consumer—you and me. Within the past five years the wholesale bulk price of penicillin has been reduced nearly four hundred per cent. Good news for the patient and a tribute to the American brand of competitive enterprise!

Try And Stop Me By BENNETT CERF

An elderly Louisiana couple, writes Bess Vaughn, discovered oil on their property, and came up to Shreveport to celebrate. Part of their wild round of dissipation included their very first visit to a zoo. When Pa saw the monkeys, he didn't have to consult any sign outside the cage. "Don't know the fancy name they've dug up for them critters," he announced to his wife, "but from the expressions on their faces and the corns on their seats, I'll warrant they be canasta players!"

The lights turned, but the lady drove at the head of the line made nary a move. While horns of cars behind howled, a traffic cop came over to inquire, "Whatsa matter, Lady? Ya waitin' for me to turn green?"

According to the Michigan Gargoyle, a customer in an Ann Arbor restaurant told his waiter, "I believe I'll have a glass of tomato juice for a pickup." "Very good," said the waiter, "and what will you have for yourself?"

The Doctor Says...

Recovery Period From Virus Infections Is Often Long

By EDWIN P. JORDAN M.D. — Written for NEA Service

A concerned mother says that her little four-year-old girl has had a fever off and on for six weeks and that the illness is considered to be caused by a virus located principally in the bronchial tubes. She wonders what can be done to speed the recovery and whether keeping the little girl in bed would cause the temperature to become normal.

Although the information submitted is rather scanty there is nothing in the letter to make one suspect that this is anything else but a virus infection as the doctors have told the mother. It is quite possible that keeping the youngster quiet in bed would speed recovery somewhat, but this up-and-down business and continuation of fever seems to be characteristic of a good many vague infections probably caused by unidentified viruses.

THERE ARE, IN FACT, a number of curious conditions of this sort which seem to spring up from time to time which are obscure as to cause and which yield poorly to treatment. Often the symptoms resemble those of mild influenza or "flu."

In fact it is possible that attacks of this kind are caused by the same virus which is responsible for more typical cases of influenza. SOME VIRUS DISORDERS come with remarkable suddenness and after a day or so the children seem to be entirely recovered. For this reason, it has so far been almost impossible to really study them or to find out which virus is responsible.

The past 25 years have yielded a great deal of information on many of the virus diseases. There is, however, a long way still to go.

MUCH MORE HAS to be learned about the nature of the viruses, the differences between the various kinds, and the treatment of the diseases which they cause. Probably some viruses are constantly in us or on us but often they lie quiet without producing symptoms. There is good reason to believe that this happens in some cases. Then under the stress of fever or some other stimulant to the virus, or weakening of the body, the viruses may start producing noticeable trouble.

The vast majority of children who are attacked by these vague virus infections recover completely without any after effects. But the convalescence or recovery period is often distressingly irregular and slow.

Today And Tomorrow

By WALTER LIPPMANN

As the old year was coming to an end, there became visible something of the shape of things to come. I know that in a venture of this sort we are all of us like the blind men in the fable who were trying to describe the shape of the elephant from what they could learn by touching it. But there have been three stories in the past three weeks which, put together, foretell something big and important that we shall be running into.

One is the crisis of indecision in the French Parliament on the role of France in Europe and in the world. The heart of this crisis has been that the democratic Assembly is so divided in its aims and so contradictory in its views that it cannot render a firm judgment about the vital interests of France. This malady of the French democracy is not confined to France. Our own Congress, for example, is in a similar state of deadlock and confusion over our policy in the Far East. The members of Congress are so divided within their own minds they are so committed by the many statements and speeches they have made, that they cannot go beyond saying no to those who want to make war and no to those who do not.

The second story is that Moscow and Peking have for the time being returned to the tactic of increasing rather than of relaxing the tension. This is understandable enough in regard to Europe in the face of the Western push to rearm Germany. But the German problem is not a sufficient explanation of why Peking has also chosen this time to increase the tension by such acts as the conviction of the American airmen. For when Peking made this decision the American policy in the Far East was undergoing the important modification of limiting the Nationalist's practical aims to the defense of Formosa and the Pescadores. This was a decisive step in withdrawing American support from counter-revolution in China. Yet Peking chose that moment to exacerbate the relations not only with the United States but with the European nations who fought with the United States in Korea.

ASIA-AFRICAN CONFERENCE

The third big story at the year's end is probably the biggest of all. It is the decision at Jakarta by the Prime Ministers of the Colombo Powers, that is to say of Pakistan, India, Burma, Ceylon and Indonesia, to call a conference in April of the thirty "independent governments" of Asia and Africa. The more closely one reads the text of this historic communique, the plainer it is that we and our leading European allies are not going to be able to afford the luxury of parliamentary confusion and delay which prevents our governments from making clear and firm decisions in Asia and in Africa. The fixing of April as a date for the meeting of the Asia-African conference is in effect the setting of a kind of deadline for a great many issues, such as Formosa, and perhaps North Africa as well—which will have to be much more clearly dealt with than they are now.

Let us have no illusions about the fact that the United States and its leading allies in Western Europe are going to be the judged and not the judges at this April conference. The official communique all but says in so many words that the conference will consider our intentions in Formosa and Korea, the French intentions in North Africa and South Viet Nam, the Netherlands position in New Guinea, the British in such places as Cyprus.

The list of the non-invited countries is interesting. Among the countries which are in Asia as a matter of geography, the non-invited are the Soviet Union, Australia and New Zealand, North and South Korea. Nationalist China and Israel. There appear to have been two main criteria of non-admission. One is to be now a satellite or colony of the West. Formosa and Korea are not treated as "independent governments." The second criterion is not to be of Asian stock, as the Soviet Union, Australia and New Zealand are not.

ASIA FOR THE ASIANS

The list of the states they did invite makes it very evident that this is no mere attempt to make a neutral bloc or a third force in between the giant military powers. Red China is no neutral and no third force. What this is, to put it plainly, is the most formidable and ambitious move yet made in this generation to apply the principle of Asia for the Asians.

The members of the conference are to include all the great Asian powers—foremost among them India, Pakistan, Japan and China. The conference intends to promote economic, social and cultural cooperation. But the least common denominator among the members, the sentiment which unites them most easily, is their alignment on what the communique describes as "problems affecting national sovereignty and of racialism and of colonialism." The United States and its allies are going to be put on the defensive, and they had better not lose much time seeing to it that the positions they are going to defend are in fact defensible.

One of the disadvantages of being a recognized liar is that you may want to tell the truth some time.

The fellow who uses flowery language isn't always handing out bouquets.

Time to Get Her Out of Drydock

Children's Bureau Goes To War On Black Market Baby Traffic

By KENNETH O. GILMORE

WASHINGTON—(NEA) — The young girl leaving the clinic obviously was pregnant. It was obvious, too, that she wasn't married, for she wasn't wearing a wedding band and her eyes were reddened and troubled.

As the girl boarded a bus, an older woman followed behind and started a conversation. The woman was kindly and most understanding. Soon a friendship had blossomed and the girl was sharing her troubles. She would soon be an unwed mother, she said, and had come to the city so no one would know.

The older woman consoled her, then offered to help. She said she knew a good doctor, and thought she could find a couple who'd agree to adopt the young girl's child. And she said she'd take care of the medical bills.

A few weeks later the young girl had borne her baby—and another innocent child had been claimed by a shady adoption ring which would peddle him off to the highest bidder.

In 1953 alone, according to latest and as yet unpublished figures from the Children's Bureau of the Health, Education and Welfare Department, more than 22,000 babies had been placed in strange new homes through illegal, unrecognized channels.

An unknown number of these infants were sold for a profit. Although the total may be comparatively small, public indignation over this black market in babies is greatly stirred up.

On the basis of court convictions it has been proved that fees for babies range from $250 to $3,000.

This is one of the main reasons why the federal government has at last taken steps to study the problem. Officials are gravely concerned by the traffic of babies who are passed from frightened, unwed mothers to craving, childless couples. Too often this results in tragedy, they say.

Because of these and other reports, the Children's Bureau has hired a special consultant on community planning for the prevention of the black market in babies.

She's Margaret Thornhill, one of the few experts in this field. Reported here exclusively are some of her views and experiences since she's been on the job. "I am looking into those situations where babies are not being put into recognized and competent agencies," explains Miss Thornhill, who has already taken a swing through Tennessee, Florida and New York.

"I want to accumulate all the latest information on the situation of unprotected babies so the Children's Bureau will have some hard-hitting and useful facts to present to social workers, citizens, lawyers, doctors and legislators. Numerous state laws need improvement and we might want to recommend federal legislation as a result of the study."

Approximately 146,500 babies are born each year to unmarried mothers, almost a fourth of whom are 17 years or younger, according to Martha M. Eliot, chief of the Children's Bureau.

"Most of the babies involved in the black market are born to young unmarried women," she says. "The black market operators take advantage of these girls

UNWED MOTHER AND SOCIAL WORKER: She'll have a chance to decide whether to keep her baby, but many women who do not go to recognized social agencies find themselves victimized, at a time of deep emotional stress.

"One of the most important factors," Miss Thornhill points out, "is the tremendous growing demand for adopted children. There are simply not enough babies to meet this need no matter what channels parents choose to go through."

"In 1953 an estimated 90,000 adoption petitions were filed in courts across the country. This is 60 per cent greater than the estimate made in 1944. "The sale of infants for a profit to would-be adoptive parents is due in a large part to lack of adequate protections in many states. This is a critical situation, but it is most critical for the individual child who becomes an innocent party."

The actual case outlined above, which happened in New York City, illustrates how an adoption ring works. It is one of many Miss Thornhill encountered in her recent trip. While this case involved money, the hundreds of others which don't have equally sad results.

The older woman who had offered to help did not meet the girl by accident. She makes it her business to spot a girl in trouble, and she has a seemingly easy answer to all worries and uncertainty.

In return, the pregnant woman agrees to give up her baby after birth out of desperation and fear. But when it's all over and she no longer has her baby, she has a terrible feeling of remorse, and it is unlikely she will make a satisfactory adjustment.

The baby's future is just as dark. It is taken by a couple who are unable to have a child. This has been an emotional upset for the wife whose desire for a child has become an unnatural obsession. As a result none of the recognized social agencies will grant her permission to adopt. But her husband can afford to buy a baby through the black market. And so this child innocently is used as a cure for a woman's unbalanced feelings.

Miss Thornhill stresses that other cases vary around the same theme. Sometimes the pregnant mother is falsely led to believe her child will be returned. Later she finds that papers she signed made it legally possible for the baby to be kept. Often babies are just hurriedly given away under pressure of well-meaning friends or relatives.

So They Say

President Eisenhower was fighting the Communists quite a few years before Sen. (Joseph) McCarthy made his maiden speech on the subject in the Senate.—Republican Chairman Hall rebukes Senator McCarthy's attack on the President.

Edson In Washington

By PETER EDSON (NEA Washington Correspondent)

WASHINGTON—(NEA) — William S. Paley, chairman of the board of Columbia Broadcasting once thought he discovered a Communist on his staff while he was serving as chairman of the President's Materials Policy Committee.

One afternoon Mr. Paley overheard a corridor conversation between two young men on his staff. One of the men said, "I think we ought to take all the files, just as they are, and ship the whole works off to Russia."

For a moment, Chairman Paley thought he had bumped into a dramatic example of subversion. He waited to see if he could hear a further disclosure of the "plot." What he heard was this fuller explanation from his staff assistant: "Those files would get the Russians so mixed up they wouldn't know what to do for the next 50 years."

"I tiptoed away," admits Paley. "My mind was relieved about subversion. But it was not set very much at rest about our report. There was altogether too much truth in what the young man said."

THERE WAS A fine public relations stew in connection with the first Washington press conference held by Neil H. McElroy, president of Proctor & Gamble, Mr. McElroy was recently named by President Eisenhower to head the big committee for the White House Conference on Education, which will be held next year.

Information people for the U. S. Office of Education, the Department of Health, Education and Welfare or even the White House might have properly been called on to arrange McElroy's press interview. Instead of which, it was set up by Proctor & Gamble's press agents.

During the session, Mr. McElroy was queried about his stand on federal aid for education. He made it apparent he was opposed, although this will be one of the big topics for debate at next year's White House conference.

Later the soap company's public relations men got to wondering if he had given the right answer to this question. They called up reporters who had been present to ask their opinion on whether Mr. McElroy had blundered.

Government information people chuckled over the fact they hadn't been mixed up in this.

NATIVE GIRLS in North Korea are now being forced to marry Chinese Communist men, according to South Korean Minister to Washington Pyo Wook Han. This "diabolical treatment they are giving our women in the north is part of an attempt to turn this part of Korea into a province of Red China," says the Republic of Korea diplomat.

He points out that there are now only about three million natives left in North Korea, whereas the population was approximately nine million in 1945.

"The Red Chinese are steadily moving in their own farmers and laborers to claim our northern land," Minister Han declares. "They are practicing mass genocide—perhaps for the first time it has been practiced in all history to this extent."

REP. HARLAN HAGEN (D., Calif.) makes this analysis of the No. One question Washington is arguing about. This is whether President Eisenhower will run for a second term as President.

"There are several factors which are expected to guide the President's decision," Representative Hagen has written to his constituents in a newsletter. "One is the desire to gain vindication for the defeat suffered by his party in November. He (Ike) regards retention of the presidency in GOP hands and the recapture of Congress as a challenge."

"Another equally compelling circumstance may be Senator McCarthy's declaration of open warfare. Those who know Ike intimately recognize that he is shocked by McCarthy's activities and that he will bend every effort to prevent control of the party from passing to the conservative-isolationist element."

ATOMIC ENERGY Commission Chairman Lewis L. Strauss flew out to California recently to deliver a speech and tend to some other AEC business in the west. He was in a government plane and was accompanied by one of his assistants and a security officer, because he was working on confidential papers.

Bad weather slowed the plane and it was apparent that the chairman would have only a few minutes after he landed to shave, get into his tuxedo and make the speech. In the confusion of getting to his hotel, Admiral Strauss' suitcase with his personal belongings got mixed up with a traveling salesman's sample case.

Undaunted, he borrowed a shirt from his assistant, used the security man's razor, and delivered his speech in the business suit he had worn on the plane.

Security Risks Fired From Federal Payroll; Over 8,000 Dismissed

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Eisenhower administration reported Monday the number of persons it has dropped from the federal payroll and classed as security risks has reached 8,008, of whom 2,096 had "subversive data" in their files.

Of the total, 3,002 were listed as fired outright and 5,006 as having resigned before final determination of their cases. The total represented about one third of one percent of the approximately 2,317,000 federal workers.

This new report on operations of its controversial security program was issued by the administration just two days before the convening of the new Democratic-controlled Congress, which promises to give the operation close scrutiny.

Disputed By Democrats

Many Democrats have challenged the figures, calling them a "hoax," and a "numbers game." Sen. Olin D. Johnston (D-SC), in line to head the Senate Post Office and Civil Service Committee in the new Congress, has said that group will conduct a full inquiry.

He has already asked for a full report on the program from the Civil Service Commission, which keeps an eye on the operation for the White House and submits periodic reports such as the one it issued today.

The program is aimed at weeding out drunks, gamblers and people with records as law violators as well as Communists, fellow travelers and persons of questionable loyalty. Unlike the program of the Truman administration, it makes no distinction between the disloyal and the security risk.

Today's report, the third to be made public by the Civil Service Commission, covered the period from May 28, 1953, through last Sept. 30, or slightly more than 16 months. The Eisenhower security program took effect on the former date.

The first official report was made last March, the second in October.

March Of Dimes Campaign Opens

LANSING (AP)—Thousands of volunteers throughout Michigan set out to raise three million dollars, the state's goal in the nationwide March of Dimes against polio.

The campaign, which continues through January, has a national goal of 64 million dollars.

Each of Michigan's 83 counties will stage a separate drive for funds, clinaxed in most communities by a "mother's march on polio" the night of Jan. 27.

Paul D. Bagwell of East Lansing, state chairman of the March of Dimes, said the 64 million dollar budget of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis includes about 30 million dollars for patient care, 15 million dollars for polio prevention, and nine million dollars for vaccine.

Police Save Roast In Oven

CONCORD, N. H. (AP)—Somewhere on Mt. Kearsarge, about 40 miles from her home here, Mrs. Joseph Kovner suddenly remembered she had forgotten to shut off the oven.

A Kearsarge custodian started a relay in motion. Sunapee State Park was given the word and passed it on to State Police, who informed local lawmen.

A Concord cruiser sped to the Kovner home and officers shut off the oven.

The roast was saved.

The bidding:

West	North	East	South
1♦	Dble.	Pass	4♥
5♦	Pass	Pass	5♥
Pass	Pass	Dble.	Pass
Pass	Pass

East's double of five hearts created something of a problem for West when it came to the opening lead—not that West would have had a clear choice in any event. West concluded, however, that his partner might have a singleton diamond, so he laid down the ace. East should have played the deuce, and then West might have made the winning shift to spades, but East actually followed suit with the eight, and this seemed to confirm West's idea about the singleton. So West led another diamond.

South, given a reprieve should have expressed his gratitude by making the contract, but his only reaction was to launch a weird line of play. He overtook the heart pique, ruffed his last diamond, cashed the trump ace, then led a spade to the ace. Next, he cashed all but one of his trumps. Later, he explained that he had been trying to hide his club void in the hope that the defenders would keep clubs and discard spades, but this was quite a lot to hope for. West signalled high in clubs, and East held grimly to his king-queen of spades.

South's correct play at Trick 3 was to lead the club queen. If East put up the king, South would merely have to ruff, lead a trump or a diamond to dummy and let the club jack ride, discarding a spade from the closed hand. West would win, but another spade discard would now be available. If East ducked the club queen, South would discard the spade immediately, and later lead the club jack through East to establish the club ten.

Judge Brennan's Successor Named

LANSING (AP)—Holding that Circuit Judge Vincent M. Brennan is out of office, Gov. Williams has appointed Theodore B. Bohn of Detroit to take his place.

Williams said that Atty. Gen. Thomas M. Kavanagh had advised him that a vacancy exists in the judgeship held by Judge Brennan.

Judge Brennan has appealed to the Ingham County Circuit Court to force the State Judges Retirement Board to cancel the retirement which he once filed and then sought to withdraw.

Kavanagh said his office would move in Circuit Court Tuesday to dismiss Judge Brennan's suit on the grounds that the court has no jurisdiction to issue a writ of mandamus in this matter.

Williams said Judge Bohn will not take his oath of office "for some time" until he has cleaned up his personal affairs. Bohn, 45, is Wayne County Democratic chairman and a member of the firm of Rothe, Marston, Bohn and Mazy of Detroit, which has a large practice among labor unions.

A native of Bay City, he is a graduate of Bay City Junior College and the Detroit College of Law.

IF YOU SUFFER FROM RHEUMATISM or ARTHRITIS THERE IS NOTHING THAT WILL HELP YOU AS MUCH AS O-JIB-WA BITTERS

Typical of hundreds of thousands of satisfied customers is, Mrs. Edith Henry, 2083 E. Buder, Flint, who before using O-JIB-WA BITTERS, suffered off and on for over 30 years with rheumatism, arthritis and neuritis.

"I am 72 years old now, and took the advice of several of your first suffered from rheumatism customers and started taking over 32 years ago, so think I know something about this pain-lift a dipper of water or a tea full and crippling condition. I help, so I was amazed after taking had it so bad O-JIB-WA for about two that it took weeks to find myself practically both hands to lift a cup to months altogether and now high my mouth. I recommend it to all sufferers. I have strength in my hands and arms again and my nerves have improved also. I recommend O-JIB-WA to my sister in Mt. Pleasant, and it helped her too, so its no wonder I have so much faith in O-JIB-WA BITTERS."

Anniversary Is Observed

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. C. Miller, 1302 Delta Ave., were pleasantly surprised by a group of neighbors and friends who gathered at their home on Sunday afternoon, the occasion being the celebration of their silver wedding anniversary which occurred on January 1.

Their daughters, Mrs. Wm. Rajala of Minneapolis, and Mrs. Wm. Green of Bay City, arranged the party while they were here for the Christmas holiday but were unable to be here for the celebration.

The afternoon was spent in playing cards and the group enjoyed supper. The honored guests were presented with a purse of silver.

Table decorations consisted of a silver twenty-five centering the table with silver streamers going to white candles with silver around them. Cup cakes with silver letters spelling out "Happy Anniversary" Val and Bill were arranged around the centerpiece.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller were married January 1, 1930, at the First Baptist parsonage in Manistique. They have two daughters, Mrs. William (Pat) Rajala, Minneapolis and Mrs. William (Ruth) Green of Bay City, three granddaughters and a grandson.

Mr. Miller is a Soo Line Engineer. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Green, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Bonz, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Snouwaert, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Mineau, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford White, Mr. and Mrs. Hanford White, Mrs. J. I. Chase and Mrs. Ina Green.

Fire Hydrant Tests Are Started Monday

Water flow tests to measure the productive capacity of fire hydrants in the city and to detect deficiencies in mains supplying them were begun by city water department workers Monday.

The tests will be made as time permits during the winter, and by spring all hydrants will have been checked, Orson Livermore, city manager, reports.

The city has about 110 hydrants in the city, fed by mains varying from an 8-inch line on Cedar, River and Oak streets, to 2-inch lines in less populous sections.

Crews will remove one cap at a time from the hydrant, to measure both the pressure under flow and the pressure when no water is coming from the hydrant. By thus measuring static and flow pressure, and determining the difference between them, the capacity of a fire hydrant can be ascertained, Livermore stated.

Expect 2700-Gallon Capacity
For example, if the difference between static and flow pressure is 20 pounds, a 2½-inch outlet can be expected to produce 750 gallons per minute, while a pressure of 36 pounds, on the same size outlet, will yield 1,010 gallons per minute, he explained.

The new Manistique water pumping station is expected to have a pumping capacity of approximately 2700 gallons per minute, when all pumps have been installed, the manager said. This will be in addition to 250,000 gallons in the reservoir.

This capacity, however, would not guarantee effective pressure for fire fighting, of mains were deficient due to partially closed valves or other obstructions, the manager explained.

Will Paint Hydrants

He noted that a closed valve may be forgotten, after repairs on a water line, and go unnoticed because other mains in the network feed into the line from opposite directions. Yet during a fire, such an obstruction would be a handicap, he added. This type of deficiency also will be revealed by the tests, he explained.

The Michigan Water Works association estimates the required fire flow for towns of 5,000 population to be 2,250 gallons per minute for nine hours duration. Livermore stated. However, most small towns do not have this capacity available, he added.

After water flow tests are completed here, fire hydrants will be painted to differentiate their capacity, the manager said. Those which can produce 500 gallons per minute will be red, those producing 500 to 1,000 gallons per minute, green, and those with a capacity greater than 1,000 gallons per minute will be aluminum, he noted.

Unless the weather throws another monkey wrench into the works between this writing and 8:15 tonight, the Escanaba Hawks will finally get off to a home start in the NMO hockey loop . . . If you're in the market for an exciting evening of sport, don't miss the game with Portage Lake tonight . . . For sheer action, deadly serious competition and speed, you can't beat hockey.

The Hawks have a plenty tough row to hoe, without the complication of unfavorable weather conditions. Expenses are tremendous in the sport, distances are great to other league cities, local talent is scarce and the fairgrounds building is not the best place in the world to watch a hockey game. But, until the day comes when we have an artificial ice rink, the Hawks sure will appreciate your support and attendance at the games.

When the Pioneers drubbed Marquette 11-3 last week at the Palestra, little Jackie Ruelle turned in a brilliant scoring game. He registered five goals against Marquette's new net-minder, Jack Pinder. Pinder is a graduate of the University of New Brunswick where he played varsity hockey. In that game the Pioneers ran up a 6-0 lead in the first period.

If you're a ski jumping fan, mark this down in your date book. The annual jumping tournament at huge Pine Mountain in Iron Mountain will be held this year on the last weekend in February. It will be the tryouts for the United States jumping team.

Billy Wells, the former Menominee High School and Michigan State College grid star, finished second in the United Press poll for "rookie of the year" honors in the National Football League. Wells, standout offensive halfback for the lowly Washington Redskins, placed second in the voting to Harlon Hill, Chicago Bears' end from Alabama State Teachers College. Wells will play in the Pro-Bowl game Jan. 16 in Los Angeles and then enter the Army Jan. 19 at Fort Bliss, Texas.

Emeralds To Entertain Newberry Quint Friday

MANISTIQUE — Coach Rudie Brandstrom's varsity cagers play their first game of the new year Friday night when the Newberry Indians invade their court.

A reserve game between Newberry and Manistique, at 7, will precede the main game in the new gym.

The Emeralds look fresh and "pepped up" after their Christmas vacation and are expected to play a good game Friday. To date they have a record of two wins and two losses.

Both Newberry and Manistique have lost to Gladstone's cagers, Coach Brandstrom notes.

Starting line-up for the Newberry game will put Ed Bernier and Bill Holm at guard, Bob Hastings at center, and Ken Dixer and Bob Corson in forward slots. First string players likely to see plenty of action include David Cook and Don Anderson.

In their four pre-holiday starts the Emeralds lost their first two games to Sault Ste. Marie (59-57) and Gladstone (71-60) and then defeated Holy Name (71-64) and Canadian Soo (65-41).

Robin Freeman Boosts Big Ten Scoring Lead

CHICAGO (AP) — Ohio State's Robin Freeman stretched his Big Ten scoring lead in the past week while Indiana's Don Schlundt dropped two notches to fourth place.

Freeman added 63 points in two games to run his total to 281 points in eight games.

Schlundt hit for 30 points in Indiana's only game this week but dropped to fourth behind Dick Cable of Wisconsin and Dick Garmaker of Minnesota. Schlundt has 210 points.

Garmaker and Cable are tied for second with 217 points each.

All four leaders with the exception of Garmaker have played eight games. Garmaker has played nine. The totals are for all games played by Big Ten teams.

Schlundt Paces Hoosiers To Upset Victory Over Michigan

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Don Schlundt still knows the direction of the basket. As long as he doesn't lose his bearings, Indiana will remain in a force to be reckoned with in the Big Ten, despite the Hoosiers' unimpressive 2-5 pre-conference record.

Schlundt scored 30 points Monday night as Indiana began its campaign for a third straight conference title with a 95-77 triumph over favored Michigan.

Jim Barley, a substitute last year, and Burke Scott, who had done little scoring in early games, got 19 points each for the winners. Indiana hit for 43 of 59 free throws and that spelled the difference.

Iowa Looked Good

But Iowa, the heir-apparent to the title, also looked powerful in its league opener, polishing off Wisconsin, 86-69. This one was significant because the Badgers had beaten Illinois, one of the teams regarded as being capable of giving Iowa a tussle.

If Wisconsin had been able to get past Iowa, some hasty revisions on the balance of power would have been in order. It never really was close, though. Iowa took the lead just before the half and never was headed. Dick Cable of Wisconsin was high scorer with 25 points.

In other Big Ten games, Robin Freeman, the leading scorer of the nation at the moment, dropped in 33 points to lead Ohio State to an 83-76 victory over Michigan State and Northwestern came from behind to edge Minnesota 74-72.

Garmaker Hits 32

The Gophers, paced by Dick Garmaker's 32 points hauled as much as a 10-point lead in the second half but couldn't stop the victory mad Wildcats.

Led by guard Dick Mast who scored 15 of his 19 points in the second half, Northwestern cut the lead to one point in the final minute when star forward Frank Elmann scored the winning basket.

Freeman, top scorer in the country, had plenty of help in the Buckeyes' victory over Michigan

Hawks Set To Face Portage Lake Pioneers In Home Opener Tonight

The Escanaba Hawks have their claws sharpened for their first home start of the 1954-55 Northern Michigan-Ontario League tonight against the Portage Lake Pioneers.

Coach Mark Olson and his crew skated through last-minute practice drills at the fairgrounds exhibition building rink last night and Olson pronounced the team "ready for action." They will face Portage Lake at 8:15 tonight.

Although the temperature did not drop as low as expected last night and today, the ice at the fairgrounds is satisfactory, Manager Jim McNicoll said today.

The Hawks will be seeking to break a two-game losing streak sustained in early-season road trips when the team was barely organized. Lack of practice ice here and at the Marquette Palestra has handicapped the Hawks considerably this season.

A number of new faces will appear in the new gold and black Hawk uniforms tonight for the first time. Playing with the Hawks from Soo, Canada, will be Warner Wilson, Steve Butorac, Aimo Muhonen, Joe Nogale and Tony Mancini. Mike Otis, from Duluth, Minn., is also a newcomer. Other Canadian players on the squad include Floyd Stae, John Perry and Ross Mervin.

One face which is familiar enough to Escanaba fans, but which is not local, is that of Ben Artwich, Stambaugh goalie. Ben will be on hand to mind the nets against the dangerous Pioneers, led by Tony Bukovich.

Local players, who form Escanaba's first line, are Olson, Buddy Provo and Bill Suriano. Dick Johnson is a defenseman and Mike Goymerac a spare goalie.

Clarence Matt and Bob Higgins of Marquette will also be available for action.

Turner, Klein Score Upsets

NEW YORK (AP) — Gil Turner and Joey Klein, a pair of underdogs, have started the New Year right. Turner won a unanimous decision over Italo Scottichini Monday night at St. Nicholas Arena and Klein stopped Gerry Dreyer on a seventh round TKO at Brooklyn's Eastern Parkway.

Packing 154 pounds to Scottichini's 154½, Turner didn't fold in the late rounds as he has been doing lately. Instead he cut loose with some of his old style Turner machine gun bursts in the eighth and ninth of a rousing battle.

Referee Jack Watson gave Turner, a 13 to 5 underdog, a 5-3-2 edge. Judge Artie Adala had it 8-2 and judge Bert Grant 6-4.

Klein, a New Yorker, slashed cuts over both eyes of Dreyer, the 11 to 5 favorite, and rocked the former British Empire welter champ just before the bell in the seventh.

Referee Mark Conn stopped the one sided battle after the bell ended the seventh. Each weighed 150½ pounds.

When it was stopped referee Conn and judge Joe Agnello had the fight 7-0 and judge Arthur Susskind had it 5-2, all for Klein.

Slight Increase In Prep Grid Fatalities

CHICAGO (AP) — A slight rise in the average of high school football fatalities during the 1954 season was reported Monday by the National Federation of State High School Athletic Assns.

There were 12 high school football fatalities during the year, the equivalent of 1.9 per 100,000 participants.

H. V. Porter, executive secretary of the group, said that over a nine-year-period, the average fatal injury rate for football was 1.4 per 100,000.

"All fatal injuries were to players who were on defense at the time," Porter said. "Nine happened while tackling a runner."

Contracts Mailed To Kansas City Players

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Contracts were on the way today to 37 baseball players expected to make up the Kansas City Athletics' 1955 squad.

Ray Kennedy, the Athletics' director of personnel, indicated only two of the players — third baseman Jim Finigan and pitcher Arnold Portocarrero — are likely to receive substantial raises.

Portocarrero won nine games and lost 18 last season for the old Philadelphia Athletics and Finigan batted .302 for the last-place club.

Heart Attack Fatal To Canadian Wrestler

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (AP) — A coroner's jury ruled Monday that William Charles Rush, 43-year-old professional wrestler known as the Canadian Angel, died of a heart attack.

Rush collapsed in a dressing room Saturday night shortly after taking part in a tag team match with three other wrestlers at the beach arena.

Sugar Ray Too Sweet But Still Has Fans

By JOE FALLS

DETROIT (AP) — Sugar Ray Robinson's fan club membership has held up well during his absence from the ring.

The former middleweight champion of the world was going through his paces Monday at the Motor City Arena in preparation for his first comeback fight Wednesday night in Olympia Stadium, against Joe Rindone of Boston.

Fans, male and female, hung from the steel girders on the roof, they stood on the window sills, they stood on their toes . . . all to watch Robinson spar two short rounds with somebody nobody knew.

That was the show for the general public, at 50 cents per head. The real show took place in Robinson's dressing room.

Sugar Ray, who still struts like a champion, strutted into this two-by-nothing room. He was followed by his manager, a trainer, his valet, another trainer, his private doctor his personal barber and another trainer.

Seven in all. They jammed the overheated room, but each performed his task like clockwork.

The trainers gave Robinson a rubdown. The doctor gave him a quick physical check. The valet dressed Sugar Ray in black pants, shirts, shoes, socks. The barber did a quick hairdressing job.

Sugar Ray got up to leave, but was stopped abruptly.

"Wait," said one of the cast. "It's raining out. I'll go out and heat up the car so you won't get chilled."

Kentucky Cements Grip On Top Cage Position

(By The Associated Press)

For the third straight week, the undefeated Kentucky Wildcats ranked today as the nation's No. 1 team in the weekly Associated Press basketball poll.

Of the 116 ballots cast by sports writers and sportscasters throughout the country, 89 named Kentucky as the top team. The Wildcats received 1,090 points and finished more than 200 points ahead of runner-up Duquesne.

The Wildcats have won seven in a row this season after posting a 25-0 record during the 1953-54 campaign.

The rest of the top 10 teams underwent a thorough shuffle as a result of holiday tournaments and a wave of upsets. Only fifth-ranked San Francisco retained the same poll position as last week.

Duquesne (8-1) climbed from eighth to second after beating LaSalle in the finals of the Madison Square Garden Holiday Festival. LaSalle (9-3) slipped one notch to fourth and North Carolina State (12-1) dropped one notch to third place. The Wolfpack was jolted from the unbeaten ranks by twice-beaten Villanova.

Adams Denies Red Wings Swear More

DETROIT (AP)—General Manager Jack Adams says his Red Wings don't cuss any more than any team in the league.

Adams made the statement Monday in reply to an accusation by Clarence Campbell, president of the National Hockey League, that the Wings used "obscene language" in recent games.

Campbell said in Montreal that there have been "lots of spectator protests" but no specific complaints against any club besides Detroit. He said the protests "have been passed on," but he made no comment on any disciplinary action he might take.

Campbell said he heard outbursts of obscenity at the Wings-Canadiens game last Saturday night in Montreal. Campbell said he left his seat and protested to Detroit coach Jim Skinner. Skinner, Campbell said, "in effect told me to mind my own business."

Adams said Skinner told Campbell to "go sit down." "You're only a spectator at this hockey game. I'm running this club and I've got a game to try to win."

Adams said his Wings "use no more obscenities than any other team in the league." He added: "I think the governors of the league ought to censure Campbell instead of his taking a crack at us. It looks as though he's trying to turn the game into a Sunday school."

Campbell said he felt obscenity "has no place in our business."

He indicated that in the heat of play an occasional mild expletive might be tolerated.

Iron Mountain Site Of Olympic Tryouts

IRON MOUNTAIN (AP)—Tryouts for berths on the 1956 six-man U. S. Olympic ski team will be held Feb. 25, 26 and 27 at Pine Mountain slide near Iron Mountain in conjunction with the U. S. Central Ski Assn. championships.

About 30 jumpers are expected to compete in the tryouts. Some 70 others will participate in the championships.

The record jump for Pine Mountain—highest artificial ski scaffold in the world—is 298 feet.

Answer to Previous Puzzle

NEW YORK (NEA)—Newt Oliver, the little guy who came this close to turning tiny Rio Grande College into a Frankenstein in reaching for the moon with his Bevo Francis a while back, has had to settle for a little less.

You'll all remember Newt and Bevo. Newt was the coach and athletic director of the tiny Ohio college whose basketball team broke into as much newspaper space as Senator McCarthy with the 6-7 Francis pouring in as much as 113 points per game.

Last year, the wave they rode began to subside and it finally disappeared as Francis and Oliver quit Rio Grande.

But they didn't disappear. The once-fabulous pair are part of a touring Harlem Globetrotter aggregation this season.

See No Changes In Grid Rules

NEW YORK (AP)—Avoiding controversial issues, the rules committee of the American Football Coaches Assn. was expected to dispose of its business today in short order.

Coach Lou Little of Columbia indicated that there is no strong move for any major football rules changes. Little annually polls the coaches on the rules.

Football television was tossed into a roundtable discussion, scheduled for Thursday morning. Although the backers of several proposals, including the Big Ten's national-regional control plan, will get their say on the subject, nothing will be decided definitely at this meeting.

The college baseball coaches decided to table a reportedly startling report on the composition of baseballs. After listening to representatives of the manufacturers of the official major league balls and to the University of Wisconsin scientists who have been making the tests, the executive committee of the American Assn. College Baseball Coaches decided to withhold publication of the report, pending further study.

Although the final results of the year-long study won't be revealed, the early experiments at Wisconsin indicated that a great many "standard" baseballs didn't conform to major league requirements.

Senior Gridders Begin Workouts

MOBILE, Ala. (AP)—North and South squads for the Senior Bowl game Saturday start heavy work today with the practice fields barred to spectators.

Coaches Paul Brown of the North and Steve Owen of the South announced they were banning spectators in an effort to get the most work done with the least interference.

Four of the stars who saw action in the rain-drenched Rose Bowl game Saturday start heavy work today with the practice fields barred to spectators.

Lindon Crow, Southern California back, was the most handicapped, although Ohio State quarterback Dave Leggett and end Dan Dugger also were hampered. Ohio State center Bob Thornton was less bothered by the skin lacerations.

Secretary Of UN Reaches Hankow

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—U.N. headquarters received word today that Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld has arrived at Hankow on his flight to Peiping to try to gain the release of 11 American airmen and other U.N. personnel held by Red China.

Hammarskjöld and his party took off in a special Chinese plane from Canton after an 8½-hour flight in an Indian plane from Calcutta, India.

The report received here said Hammarskjöld planned to stay in Hankow overnight, leaving for Peiping Wednesday morning Chinese time.

The party was met at the airport by Hankow officials and by the secretary general's cousin, Peder Hammarskjöld, who is Sweden's charge d'affaires in Peiping.

Switch Blaze Fatal To Two Electricians At Chrysler Plant

DETROIT (AP)—The short-circuit explosion and fire on the roof of a Chrysler plant has taken the life of a second workman.

A third of the four electricians burned in Monday's blast was in critical condition.

Casimir Osowski, 39, followed Henry Kolanko, 46, in death within hours after the explosion. Both were burned when a 4,800-volt switch in a roof switch house short circuited.

Alva B. Powell, 57, was hospitalized. Harold E. Engelhardt, 56, escaped serious injury.

Wheelchair Cripple Admits Gun Robbery

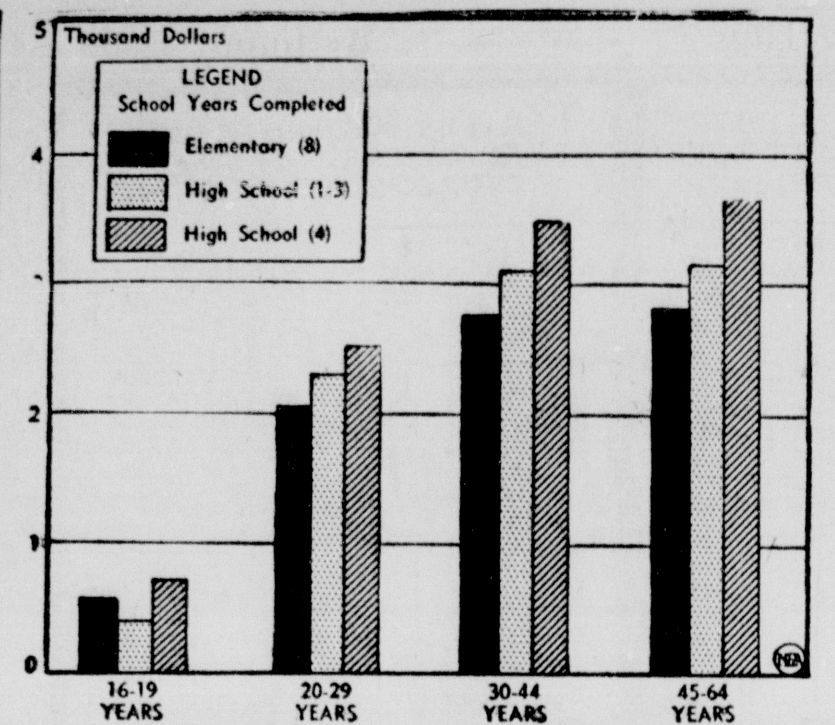

MERCED, Calif. (AP)—Oscar Wilson, 20, whose legs have been paralyzed from polio since he was a baby, went into court in a wheelchair Monday and pleaded guilty of armed robbery of a drive-in theater Dec. 17.

Police said Wilson and his 16-year-old brother drove to the ticket office and forced the cashier at gunpoint to hand over $33. They were captured after their car overturned.

Superior Judge R. R. Sischo deferred sentence.

EDUCATION "PAYS" OFF — The more education a man has, the more money he is likely to earn, according to the U. S. Department of Labor. Above Newschart shows average income for men by age groups and the amount of schooling they completed. The young man with a high school education earns more money at age 30 than the man with only eight years of school earns at age 45 to 64, his highest level.

Government Places New Restrictions On Russians In U.S.A.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States has declared 27 per cent of the country off-limits to Russians in a frankly retaliatory move against Kremlin restrictions on the travel of U. S. citizens inside the Soviet.

The tit-for-tat gesture was announced by the State Department after Secretary of State Dulles formally notified Soviet Ambassador Georgi N. Zarubin.

For the first time, it creates barred areas and closed cities inside the United States.

The Soviet has had similarly stiff regulations in effect for years.

But the U. S. notice held out a suggestion this country would drop its curbs on travels by Russians if the Soviet government took the first step in that direction.

State Department spokesmen said the restricted areas total 27 per cent of the U. S. land area and include part of 39 states, most of the Mexican border and the Great Lakes section of the Canadian border.

In the Soviet, these officials said, about 30 per cent of the land area is closed to travel by U. S. citizens or other foreigners.

The new U. S. regulations take the place of rules set nearly three years ago. Those required Soviet embassy personnel and members of Amtorg, the Russian trade agency, as well as Tass and other Soviet press agency representatives to stay within 25 miles of the centers of Washington and New York City.

They could travel elsewhere provided they gave advance notice. But no barred areas or closed cities were then established.

Not Many Affected
The hope behind this move, spokesmen said, was that it might encourage Russia to relax its travel restrictions.

American spokesmen told newsmen the areas were chosen by reasons of "reciprocity and security." Other than that, they declined to go into detail.

No precise figures were available on how many Soviet citizens would be affected. The new order is designed to include all persons in the United States on Soviet passports, except the 50 or so working for the U. N.

The State Department said there are 125 Americans at the U. S. Embassy in Moscow, five correspondents and their dependents and a Catholic priest.

West Berlin Needy Get CARE Packages

BERLIN (AP)—Distribution of 125,000 CARE food packages to needy West Berlin residents was opened today by Asst. U. S. High Commissioner Henry Parkman.

Parkman called donation of the packages by the Committee for American Remittances to Europe an appropriate expression of American interest.

State Of Union Message To Get Democratic O. K.

noon Wednesday with the Democrats taking over control.

George said he will not push in 1955 for tax-cutting increases in personal income exemptions of the kind he sought unsuccessfully last year. He said he believes exemptions should be raised, but not until greater progress has been made toward balancing the budget.

George predicted Congress would carry on "a reasonable foreign aid program" but said that closer attention than in the past must be paid to making it effective.

George said he would favor a gradual increase in "nonwar" trade with some sections of the Communist world, such as Russia's satellite nations.

Wage Boost Included
It already has been disclosed that Eisenhower will ask for continuance of corporation and excise taxes at present levels and will propose an increase in the statutory minimum wage from 75 to 90 cents, as well as pay increases for civil service and postal workers. The latter would be tied to a postal rate increase certain to be opposed by many Democrats.

Eisenhower probably will urge strongly also a pay increase for specialists in the armed services, with adoption of a new reserve plan embodying six months of training for volunteers.

The White House has indicated renewal of his request, ignored by Congress last year, for federal reinsurance of private health plans. He also will ask for a long-range highway building program financed by the federal government and the states.

RAYBURN TAKES OVER
WASHINGTON (AP)—Sam Rayburn of Texas was unanimously chosen by Democrats today to be speaker of the House in the 84th Congress convening at noon Wednesday.

His selection at a party caucus assured his election when Democrats take over control of Congress.

Rayburn, who will be 73 years old Thursday, already has served as speaker longer than any other man in history. He first was elected to that office in September 1940, and has held it ever since except when Republicans controlled the 80th and 83rd Congresses.

Rayburn will take over the gavel from Republican Joseph W. Martin Jr. of Massachusetts, who will step down to the post of minority leader. Martin is the unanimous choice of Republicans to be speaker but will run second in Wednesday's formal balloting. Democrats outnumber Republicans 231 to 203 and the voting follows straight party lines.

Draft Call Cut To 584 In State

LANSING (AP)—Michigan was ordered to draft 584 men for military service in February, the smallest draft call since June of 1952.

The State Selective Service headquarters said most of the call will be filled with volunteers desiring to complete their military service at a time most convenient to them.

Wayne County will furnish 120 men and outstate boards 464 men in February.

The call by counties:

Alger, 0; Baraga, 2; Chippewa, 4; Delta, 3; Dickinson, 7; Gogebic, 4; Houghton, 6; Iron, 2; Keweenaw, 0; Luce, 0.

Mackinac, 1; Marquette, 9; Menominee, 3; Ontonagon, 3; Schoolcraft, 2.

No Contest In Ensign Township

There will be no primary contest in Ensign Township this year. The only slate of candidates filed for the township election follows:

Harold F. Gustafson, supervisor, Blanche Teinert, clerk; Ina Lundberg, treasurer; Andrew G. Johnson and Glenn Lundin, trustees; Norman Johnson, road and park commission; Henning Johnson, board of review, full term.

Wall Street

NEW YORK (AP)—A major selling wave pounded the stock market lower today, but it was able to withstand the worst of the pressure.

The dive was accompanied by a break of more than six points in General Motors which had gained more than seven Monday.

Prices were down as much as four points at the bottom of the decline, but they recovered to the point where losses seldom went past two points. A number of leading issues were strong.

Volume was exceedingly heavy with the tape falling as much as five minutes behind in reporting actual floor dealings. The lag lasted more than an hour.

General Motors yesterday made a strong showing as the day's most active issue in the midst of rumors of a stock split, a cash or stock dividend, or other favorable corporate developments.

After the close, the company announced it plans to offer stockholders the right to buy 325 million dollars in new common stock at the rate of 1 new share for each share now held.

Disappointment in Wall street was shown today by the loss by GM of 6½ at 99 on an opening block of 16,000 shares. Other stocks were quickly hammered down 1 to around 4 points in key areas of the list.

U. S. government bonds were higher.
